REPORT

Department of Electronics of Shiksha Mandal's Bajaj College of Science, Wardha organized one week Online Faculty Development Program on Arduino in association with Spoken Tutorial Project of IIT, Mumbai from 28th April 2020- 4th May 2020 to facilitate faculty, researchers and students to learn new technology during the lockdown due to COVID-19 pandemic. As our college is registered with IIT Mumbai, under Spoken Tutorial Program, we were eligible to organize faculty development program.

We have received huge response from the teachers, researchers and students across our state. Total 459 participants have registered online to this course. The participants would be given certification of participation by our college and they will receive certificate from IIT Mumbai after qualifying the test conducted by IIT Mumbai online.

This activity would definitely be useful for the teachers for their academic development and skills enhancement and their students may be benefited with this achievement.
