ANTI-RAGGING POLICY

The Institute has a coherent and an effective anti-ragging policy in place which is based on the "UGC Regulations on Curbing the Menace of Ragging in Higher Educational Institutions, 2009" [hereinafter referred to as the "UGC Regulations"]. The UGC Regulations have been framed in view of the directions issued by the Supreme Court of India to prevent and prohibit ragging in all Indian Higher Educational Institutions.

Ragging constitutes one or more of the following acts:

1. Any conduct by any student or students whether by words spoken or written or by an act which has the effect of teasing, treating or handling any student with rudeness.
2. Indulging in rowdy or undisciplined activities by any student or students which causes or is likely to cause annoyance, hardship, physical or psychological harm or to raise fear or apprehension thereof in any other student.
3. Asking any student to do any act which such student will not in the ordinary course do and which has the effect of causing or generating a sense of shame, or torment or embarrassment to adversely affect the physique or psyche of such a student.
4. Any act by a senior student that prevents, disrupts, or disturbs the regular academic activity of any student.
5. Exploiting the services of a student for completing the academic tasks assigned to an individual or a group of students.
6. Any act of financial extortion or forceful expenditure burden put on a student by other students.
7. Any act of physical abuse including all variants of it: sexual abuse, stripping, forcing obscene and lewd acts, gestures, causing bodily harm or any other danger to health or person.
8. Any act or abuse by spoken words, emails, post, public insults which would also include deriving perverted pleasure, vicarious or sadistic thrill from actively or passively participating in the discomfiture to any other student.

9. Any act that affects the mental health and self-confidence of any other student with or without an intent to derive a sadistic pleasure or showing off power, authority, or superiority by a student over any other student.

Anti-Ragging Measures:

1. All the requirements as per the regulations of the Central and State governments, UGC and court orders including anti-ragging undertaking by students and parents, awareness programmes, etc. are satisfied.
2. The College strictly adheres to the provisions of the acts of the Central Government and the State Governments, if any, or if enacted and /or for the time being in force, considering ragging as a cognizable offence.
3. The Principal of the College directly supervises the Anti-Ragging Cell.
4. The Anti-ragging Cell shall ensure strict vigilance on activities of students especially during the arrival of new batches in the beginning of the academic year.
5. Regular reports from the Anti-ragging Cell and Counsellors are submitted to the principal.
6. The class tutors will help to identify potential violators and students with stress, tension and other troubles and personally meet them, and if necessary, take the steps to have sessions with professional counsellors.
7. Special sessions are arranged for the newcomers in the first weeks of the academic year in order to prepare them for the socio-academic life in the campus.
8. The College identifies all vulnerable locations and ensure a constant vigil and watch at such locations.
9. The institution ensures the participation of all the students during the cultural festivals and celebrations to erase the senior- junior distinctions
10. The anti- ragging policy of the College ensures the presence of teacher squads which take turns to maintain the customary discipline of the campus.
11. Special sessions should be conducted to sensitize the students and parents of the students about the rights and safety of the students.

Anti-Ragging Committee:

The Anti-Ragging Committee, as constituted by the Principal and headed by the Students Representative Affairs shall examine all complaints of anti-ragging and come out with recommendation based on the nature of the incident.

A student found guilty by the committee will attract one or more of the following punishments, as imposed by the Anti-Ragging Committee:

1. Suspension from attending classes and academic privileges.
2. Withholding / withdrawing scholarship / fellowship and other benefits.
3. Debarring from appearing in any test / examination or other evaluation process.
4. Withholding results.
5. Debarring from undertaking any collaborative work or attending national or international conferences / symposia / meeting to present his/her research work.
6. Suspension/ expulsion from the hostels and mess.
7. Cancellation of admission.
8. Expulsion from the institution and consequent debarring from admission to any other institution for a specified period.
9. In cases where the persons committing or abetting the act of ragging are not identified, the College shall resort to collective punishment.
10. If need be, in view of the intensity of the act of ragging committed, a First Information Report (FIR) shall be filed by the College with the local police authorities.
11. The Anti-Ragging Committee of the College shall take appropriate decision, including imposition of punishment, depending on the facts and circumstances of each incident of ragging and nature and gravity of the incident of ragging.

POLICY ON PREVENTION OF SEXUAL HARASSMENT

Sexual harassment is gender-based verbal or physical conduct (male/female, female/male, or same-sex) that has the purpose or effect of either unreasonably interfering with an individual's dignity, work or academic performance or creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working or educational environment.

Assistance by Institute

In order to foster a fearless environment, the INSTITUTE shall take following proactive steps in preventing sexual harassment and resolving disputes of the above said nature:

- To provide counselling services to the complainant
- To undertake workshops and training programmes at regular intervals.
- Sensitizing the students, faculty members and employees regarding the sexual harassment guidelines
- To pursue the complaint and the safety of the complainant
- To assure confidentiality of the case
- To form the Committee to deal with the cases relating to Sexual Harassment
- To inform the members about the Internal Complaints Committee by displaying the same at conspicuous place
- Provide necessary facilities to the Internal Complaints Committee as the case may be, for dealing with the complaint and conducting inquiry;
- Assist in securing the attendance of respondent and witnesses before the Internal Complaints Committee or the Grievance Redressal Cell, as the case may be.
- Make available such information to the Internal Complaints Committee as the case may be, as it may require

Redressal Process

- Any student who feels and is being sexually harassed directly or indirectly may submit a complaint of the alleged incident to any member of the Internal Complaints Committee in writing with her/his signature within 30 days of occurrence of incident.

- The Committee will maintain a register to endorse the complaint received by it and keep the contents confidential, if it is so desired, except to use the same for discreet investigation.
- The Committee will hold a meeting with the complainant within five days of the receipt of the complaint, but not later than a week in any case.
- At the first meeting, the Committee members shall hear the complainant and record her allegations. The complainant can also submit any corroborative material with a documentary proof, oral or written material etc. to substantiate her/his complaint.
- Thereafter, the person against whom complaint is made may be called for a deposition before the Committee and an opportunity will be given to him/her to give an explanation, thereafter, an "Enquiry" shall be conducted.
- In the event, the complaint does not fall under the purview of Sexual Harassment, or the complaint does not mean an offence of Sexual Harassment, the same would be dropped after recording the reasons thereof.
- In case the complaint is found to be false, the complainant shall, if deemed fit, be liable for appropriate disciplinary action by the Management.

Student Grievance Procedure

Any student at the College aggrieved by any acts of sexual harassment, misconduct or ragging as defined and summarized hereinabove can approach the Student Grievance Redressal cell at the College. Further, any student who is aware of any violations must report the same to the Cell. The Cell shall consist of members as appointed by the Principal. Said grievance must be in writing and should be made within 60 days from the day of the alleged violation. The Cell shall take cognizance of the grievance and inform the Committee formed to enforce this Code or the Internal Complaints Committee, in cases of any sexual harassment complaints.

GRIEVANCE REDRESSAL MECHANISM

Any student at the College aggrieved by any acts of sexual harassment, misconduct or ragging as defined and summarized hereinabove can approach the Student Grievance Redressal cell at the College. Further, any student who is aware of any violations must report the same to the Cell. The Cell shall consist of members as appointed by the Principal. Said grievance must be in writing and should be made within 60 days from the day of the alleged violation. The Cell shall take cognizance of the grievance and inform the Committee formed to enforce this Code or the Internal Complaints Committee, in cases of any sexual harassment complaints. The college closely follows the regulations of UGC (Grievance Redressal) Regulations, 2018.

1. The college provides adequate and ample platforms for its different stakeholders to raise their grievances. The college insists on convening regular open houses for all the departments.
2. To resolve any confusion and grievance related to admission to various academic programmes special helpdesk should be arranged. Any breach in the reservation policy in admission should be directly informed to the principal.
3. Grievance related to fee payment, caution deposit, etc. should be dealt by the respective heads of the department and should be reported to the principal according to the seriousness of the issues.
4. Complaints related to various offices of the college including the principal can be informed directly to the manager of the college.
5. Adequate measures should be taken to address the suggestions regularly gathered from the suggestion boxes placed at different blocks of the college.
6. Manual of the college should be published in print form and online.
7. Grievance Redress Cell convenes frequent meetings to monitor the grievance redress activities of the institution.
