Program Report: Motivational Speech on Administrative Services

Organized by: Students' Council, Competitive Examination Cell, and Centre for Women Studies and Services (CWSS), Bajaj College of Science, Wardha

Date: 12th October 2023

Time: 3:30 PM

Venue: Gandhi Memorial Hall

The primary goal of this program was to inspire and motivate students aspiring to pursue careers in administrative services. The session aimed to provide insights into the journey of becoming a successful officer and the challenges and opportunities that lie ahead in administrative roles.

Mr. Noorul Hasan, IPS Officer, and Superintendent of Police, Wardha, was invited as the distinguished guest speaker for this event. He shared his experiences and insights on the preparation and dedication required to enter administrative services.

The event began with a warm welcome by Prof. P. V. Tekade, Principal. Dr. V. V. Shinde, Convenor of the Students' Council, who introduced the guest speaker and outlined the objectives of the session.

During his motivational speech, Mr. Noorul Hasan discussed the following key topics:

- The importance of determination and hard work in pursuing a career in administrative services
- Strategies for preparing for competitive exams
- The role of an IPS officer and the responsibilities associated with the position
- Overcoming challenges and maintaining integrity in administrative roles
- The impact of administrative services on society and the importance of serving the nation

The interactive session allowed students to ask questions about the examination process, career opportunities, and the day-to-day responsibilities of an IPS officer. Mr. Hasan provided insightful answers and encouraged students to pursue their goals with dedication and commitment.

The event was attended by a large number of undergraduate and postgraduate students from various disciplines, demonstrating a keen interest in administrative services. Their active participation and engagement made the session highly interactive and enriching.

The program successfully inspired the students and provided them with valuable guidance for their journey towards administrative services. The speaker's experiences and words of encouragement motivated many students to consider administrative roles as a viable career option.

The session concluded with a vote of thanks by Dr. M. A. Haque, Program Officer of CWSS, who expressed gratitude to Mr. Noorul Hasan for his inspirational speech and thanked all the participants for their enthusiasm and involvement in the program.
